

The 6th Annual Paradise Permaculture Institute

SEED SWAP EXTRAVAGANZA

In Partnership with the Livingston-Park County Library

Saturday, January 25, 2020 • 1-3:30pm at the Library, 228 W Callendar St.

Free Seed Exchange & Presentations

“Seed Saving” with Cheryl Moore-Gough

“The Simple Art of Seed Saving” with Michele Evans

Children’s Corner with Fun Learning Activities

PPI is dedicated to supporting seed saving and growing healthy produce in our community. We are pleased to partner with the Livingston-Park County Library for our 6th Annual Seed Swap event for farmers and backyard growers. Author Cheryl Moore-Gough and local expert Michele Evans return again this year with new informative presentations, and everyone is invited to bring seeds to swap.

- 1:00 The Seed Library and Tool Library with Suzie Catharine, Livingston-Park County Library
- 1:15 Seed Saving (live stream via computer) with Cheryl Moore-Gough, author of The Complete Guide to Saving Seeds
- 2:30 The Simple Art of Seed Saving with Michele Evans, teacher and member of Ecology Life Action, our own local expert with 40+ years of seed-saving experience
- 3:00 Seed Exchange (along with coffee, tea and seed snacks)

Feel free to stay and browse the library's gardening resources.
Children’s Corner Seed activities from 1-2:30pm

SEED SWAP! Bring your own seeds if you have them, and containers to collect them.
Recycled junk mail envelopes or regular envelopes work well.

Visit our website or call to learn more. www.paradisepermaculture.org | (406) 222-9999

